

This new proposed rule regarding broadcast ownership is irresponsible and should not be allowed. The FCC should be taking a stand toward the public good and NOT the good of a few select media moguls. The fact that Chairman Powell is not allowing public hearings is a slap in the face to those who might have real information for the FCC to consider. I doubt that there were any considerations other than giving Mr Murdoch what he wants. The other members of this committee should be screaming for hearings.